RETRACTABLE WINDOW GRILLES

LPCB Ref No. 390a/03

Cardea's Retractable Window Grille combines a classic appearance with a high level of protection, ideal for the home or workplace. Available in both standard and insurance approved options, the grilles are designed to keep intruders out while letting maximum light in, perfect for vulnerable ground floor doors and windows.

- The Grilles provide a visual deterrent and feeling of safety, yet can be easily drawn back as and when required.
- Standard Retractable Grilles are provided with the smallest bunch size available on the market.
- Insurance approved grilles tested to LPCB and SBD standards.
- A choice of 'X' Lattice available as standard and an 'S' Lattice available as an insurance approved option. Our grilles can be powder-coated in a wide range of colours.

Application

The Retractable Window Grille can be easily fitted to the face or within the reveal of a window or door aperture.

Suitable for commercial, retail and domestic properties.
